1. C++ program to check whether a character is Uppercase or Lowercase.

2. Implement Multiplication function using Addition operators and loops.

3. Declare an array of some length greater than 5. Write a sorting algorithm to sort the array according to user demand, e-g if user ask to sort it in ascending order the algorithm should sort the array in ascending order and if he asks for descending order it should do so.